Authority (European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority) established by Regulation (EU) No. 1094/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council or the European Supervisory Authority (European Securities and Markets Authority) established by Regulation (EU) No. 1095/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council;".

Amendment of article 4 of the principal Act.

3. Sub-article (9) of article 4 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following:

"(9) An investigation order shall be served on the persons referred to in sub-article (1) and an attachment order shall be served on the garnishee and on the suspect by an officer of the Executive Police or by an officer of the issuing authority or by an officer of the Courts or of the Asset Recovery Bureau:

Provided that such orders may also be served on the garnishee and the persons referred to in sub-article (1), except for the suspect, by electronic mail in which case the person upon whom the order is served shall acknowledge receipt by return electronic mail by not later than one working day from such service. In default of receipt of such acknowledgement the order shall be served physically by any of the officers referred to in this sub-article without prejudice to the validity of the service made by electronic mail:

Cap. 101.

Provided further that the procedure stipulated in this sub-article shall apply, in addition to that provided in sub-article (9) of article 24A of the Dangerous Drugs Ordinance, with regard to service of investigation orders and attachment orders issued under the said Ordinance."

Amendment of article 12 of the principal Act.

4. Article 12 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) sub-article (1) thereof shall be substituted by the following:

"(1) The Minister may, acting on the advice of the Unit, make rules or regulations generally with a view to combating money laundering and funding of terrorism or for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act, and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may by such rules or regulations require credit institutions, financial institutions and other undertakings and professions operating within the financial sector and other relevant sectors, to implement measures, procedures, systems and controls to prevent money laundering and the funding of terrorism, including identification, risk management, record-keeping, training and reporting.";

(b) sub-article (4) thereof shall be substituted by the following:

"(4) The Minister may, in consultation with the Minister responsible for justice, by regulation amend, alter or add to the list of offences specified in the Second Schedule to this Act."; and

(c) immediately after sub-article (4) thereof, there shall be added the following new sub-article (5):

"(5) The Minister may prescribe by regulations any matter required to be prescribed by this Act."

5. Immediately after article 12 of the principal Act there shall be added the following new article:

Addition of a new article 12A to the principal Act.

"National Co-ordinating Committee on Combating Money Laundering and Funding of Terrorism.

12A. (1) The Minister may, by regulations made under this Act, establish a committee that shall be referred to as the National Co-ordinating Committee on Combating Money Laundering and Funding of Terrorism.

(2) The committee established under sub-article (1) shall draw up a national strategy and policies to combat money laundering, the funding of terrorism and the financing of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and co-ordinate any action to be taken to develop, implement and review the national strategy and policies, including the co-ordination of national risk assessments and the actions to be taken to address any threats, vulnerabilities and risks identified.

(3) The committee established under sub-article (1) shall be composed of the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for finance, the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for home affairs, the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for justice, the Governor of the Central Bank of Malta, the Commissioner for Revenue, the Chairman of the Malta Financial Services Authority, the Chairperson of the Malta Gaming Authority, the Commissioner of Police, the Attorney General, the Chairman of the Unit and the Chairperson of the Asset Recovery Bureau or their deputies.

A 948

(4) The committee may, whenever it deems so necessary or expedient, engage one or more persons, whom it considers to be in possession of suitable expertise, to assist it in carrying out specific tasks requiring such expertise.

(5) The Chairperson of the committee shall be the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for finance.

(6) The Minister shall prescribe by means of regulations the powers to be conferred on the committee and the procedures it is to follow for the proper carrying out of its functions.

(7) The remuneration payable, if any, to any member of the committee shall be determined by the Minister."

Substitution of article 13 of the principal Act.

6. Article 13 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following:

"Punishments, penalties and other measures.

13. (1) The Minister may make rules or regulations to provide for criminal punishments, administrative penalties and other measures that may be imposed in respect of any contravention, breach or failure to comply with any rules, regulations or directives made under this Act:

Provided that:

(a) criminal punishments so imposed shall not exceed a fine (multa) of one million euro (€1,000,000) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or both such fine and imprisonment as set out in the rules or regulations concerned; and

(b) administrative penalties so imposed shall not exceed:

(i) five million euro (€5,000,000); or

(ii) twice the amount of the benefit derived from the contravention, breach or failure to comply, where this can be determined; or

(iii) ten per centum (10%) of the total annual turnover according to the latest approved available financial statements.

(2) The administrative penalties referred to under sub-article (1) shall be imposed by the Unit in accordance with policies and procedures established by the Board of Governors referred to in article 18, from time to time.

(3) The Unit may, in cross-border cases, co-operate with any foreign national or supranational body, authority or agency which it considers to have functions equivalent or analogous to those mentioned in article 26(1), to coordinate the imposition of administrative penalties or other measures.

(4) Where an administrative penalty or other measure, as provided for in this article, is imposed in respect of a subject person carrying out relevant financial business, as defined under regulations in force from time to time under this Act, the Unit shall notify the relevant European Supervisory Authority of the action taken and, where applicable, the European Supervisory Authority shall also be notified of any pending appeal and the outcome thereof.

(5) For the purposes of this article and articles 13A and 13B the term "subject person" has the same meaning assigned to it by article 14 of this Act."

7. Article 13A of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following:

Substitution of article 13A of the principal Act.

"Appeals from administrative penalties.

13A. (1) Whenever a subject person feels aggrieved by an administrative penalty imposed by the Unit in terms of rules and regulations made under article 13, and that administrative penalty exceeds five thousand euro (€5,000), whether imposed in respect of one or more contraventions, the subject person may appeal such administrative penalty both on points of law and fact.

(2) The appeal as referred to in sub-article (1) shall lie to the Court of Appeal (Inferior Jurisdiction) constituted in terms of article 41(6) of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure.

Cap. 12.

A 950

Cap. 12. (3) An appeal to the Court of Appeal (Inferior Jurisdiction) in terms of sub-article (1) shall be filed in the registry of the said Court within twenty days from the date when the imposition of the administrative penalty is notified to the subject person, and such an appeal shall be regulated by the applicable provisions of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure relating to appeals.

(4) For the purposes of safeguarding the confidentiality of information and documents relating to the proceedings, the appeal before the Court of Appeal (Inferior Jurisdiction) filed in terms of this article shall be heard in camera and saving the provisions of article 13C the judgment shall not be published.

Addition of new articles to the principal Act.

8. Immediately after article 13A of the principal Act there shall be added the following new articles:

"Recovery of administrative penalties.

13B. (1) An administrative penalty, served on the subject person against whom it is imposed by means of a notice in writing, which is not appealed in accordance with the provisions of article 13A and which is not paid within twenty days from the date of notification, shall be recoverable as a civil debt, and the notice in writing shall, upon the service of a copy thereof by means of a judicial act on the subject person indicated in the notice, constitute an executive title for all effects and purposes of Title VII of Part I of Book Second of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure.

Cap. 12.

(2) Where the administrative penalty is appealed and the appeal is decided, deserted or withdrawn, the administrative penalty shall be enforceable in accordance with the procedure provided for in sub-article (1).

Publication of administrative penalties.

13C. Any administrative penalty imposed by the Unit in terms of rules and regulations made under article 13, which exceeds ten thousand euro (€10,000) and which has become final and due shall be subject to publication in accordance with policies and procedures established by the Board of Governors referred to in article 18."

Amendment of article 14 of the principal Act.

9. Article 14 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:
